

psalms
for the summer

¹ How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!

Psalms 133:1 (NIV)

¹⁵ Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ.

Ephesians 4:15 (NIV)

² It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down on the collar of his robe. ³ It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

Psalms 133:2-3 (NIV)

³⁴ "A new command I give you: Love one another.
As I have loved you, so you must love one another.
³⁵ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

John 13:34-35 (NIV)

Ideally...the church is not just made up of natural friends. It is made up of natural enemies. What binds us together is not common education, common race, common income levels, common politics, common nationality, common accents, common jobs or anything else of that sort. Christians come together... because they have all been saved by Jesus Christ and owe him a common allegiance.

¹ As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. ² Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. ³ Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

Ephesians 4:1-3 (NIV)

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Savior, the Prince of Peace: Give us grace to seriously lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that, as there is but one Body and one Spirit, one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may all be of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
