... he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize.

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

1:6 - ... he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

1:21 - For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

3:13-14 - Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize.

4:4 - Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

4:13 - I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

PHILIPPIANS

Deepening Relationships With God & Others

Through social media and technology, it can feel like we are more connected than ever. However, most of us experience shallow relationships and superficial connections that leave us lonely. As Christ-followers, we are called to something different. For 10 weeks, we'll dig into Paul's letter to the Philippians and see how true connection begins with deepening our relationship with God and extends to everyone around us.

1) What is Paul's relationship like with the Philippians?

2) What does he want for them?
